

Unforgettable Andaman Escapes at Anantara Si Kao Resort

Located along a private stretch of Pakmeng-Changlang Beach, in the district of Si Kao in Trang province, the Anantara Si Kao Resort is a pure slice of paradise—an untouched corner of the Andaman coastline bordering the pine forests Hat Chao Mai National Park.

Designed to be in perfect harmony with its beautiful surroundings, the Anantara Si Kao Resort offers guests an array of luxury accommodation options, ranging from the 45 sq.m Deluxe and Family Rooms, all the way up to the 110 sq.m Anantara Pool Suite, and the extravagant 230 sq.m Three Bedroom Family Pool Villa. But whichever size, all accommodations are sea-facing and feature a private balcony or terrace, complete with lovely views.

Culinary experiences here include Acqua, the resort's signature restaurant, which serves seafood and pasta specialties with authentic Italian flair. Try the Tom Yum Kung Risotto, a signature dish. Guests at Acqua can dine on the elevated deck with a sensational sea view, in the indoor dining room. Meanwhile, for local delicacies there's Leelawadee, where Southern Thai specialties are available all day long at this open air restaurant. Other dining options include The Beach House (a great place to watch the sunset) and the Koh Kradan Beach Club (operating during October-May). You can also sip and savour at the Pool Bars, located beside the beautiful beachfront infinity adults only pool and family pool.

For relaxation the renowned Anantara Spa has six air-conditioned treatment rooms, including a personal spa suite with a private steam room, Jacuzzi, and sala. Or, take a day trip by speedboat to Anantara's Private Beach Club at nearby Koh Kradan, crystal clear water which is perfect for snorkeling. Guests are also invited to take a half-day tour to participate in the Anantara's Sea Grass Planting CSR Project, which helps Thailand's last group of dugongs that is on the edge of extinction.

The resort is also the perfect spot for unforgettable tropical weddings—including underwater scuba-diving weddings, an Anantara specialty. It's the type of resort that has something for everyone—from honeymooners to families with children, to older travelers. There's also a kid's club for families with young children, and plenty of outdoor recreation and activities for the grown ups.
